JUSTIFICATION SHEET

DEPARTMENT: Public Safety

TITLE: A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC SAFETY.

PURPOSE: To define the number of members necessary for the Hawaii Paroling Authority to make decisions, amend the conditions for time served for a parole violation, and correct an error in the sunset clause of Act 139, Session Laws of Hawaii (SLH) 2012.

MEANS: Amend sections 353-62(b) and 353-66(e), Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS), and section 14 of Act 139, SLH 2012.

JUSTIFICATION: Act 139, SLH 2012, is the center piece of the Justice Reinvestment Initiative.

Section 6 of Act 139 increases the members of the Hawaii Paroling Authority (HPA) from a chairperson and two part-time members to a chairperson and four part-time members. This section, as introduced by the Administration, was intended to allow part-time members to rotate duties, requiring three members be present to act on matters before the parole board. The purpose of this section was to ensure a panel of three members was always available while other members were ill, on vacation, family leave, etc. It also allows for some members to be reviewing cases while others are hearing other cases.

Section 92-12, HRS, defines a quorum as "all the members to which the board or commission is entitled" unless it is otherwise specified in law. The proposed amendment allows for a panel of three members to convene a hearing, with all matters acted upon by the majority of those present. As some HPA members have previously been employed in the criminal justice system, it is not unusual for conflicts of interest in a given case to arise. Convening panels of three allows HPA to avoid conflicts requiring recusal of a member by not scheduling a member having a conflict when such a situation is identified beforehand.

On rare occasions, a member will not be aware prior to the hearing of a potential conflict of interest. This measure also allows for two members to continue to proceed with a hearing should a third member of the panel determine immediately preceding or during the course of a hearing that there is a conflict of interest that requires recusal.

Under Act 139, certain parole violators will be limited to a six-month revocation period of incarceration. Those excluded include offenders charged with new felonies and certain misdemeanors. The identified misdemeanors do not include firearms and dangerous weapons offenses, which are deemed as serious violations of parole. This proposal amends section 353-66(e) to include firearms and dangerous weapons misdemeanors as defined in chapter 134, HRS.

An oversight was discovered in Act 139 that impacts those arrested while out-of-state. Another jurisdiction may notify the Hawaii Paroling Authority that it has a person in custody for which there is an outstanding State of Hawaii parole warrant and will place a hold on that person at HPA's request. If the person is charged with another offense in the holding jurisdiction, the person may not be returned to Hawaii on the parole warrant for a considerable period of time. The proposed amendment addresses this situation by stating the period of confinement for the parole violation does not begin until the person is returned to the custody of the State.

Section 14 of Act 139 contains a sunset date for certain provisions. An error was made in identifying the date when previous law was in effect, nullifying the sunset date. This proposal states that the affected sections "shall be reenacted in the form on which it read on June 30, 2012."
