A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO WAGE GARNISHMENT.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

SECTION 1. Chapter 127A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by adding a new section to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

"§127A- Wage garnishment protection. (a) It shall be unlawful, during a covered period and for sixty days following the termination of that covered period, for a creditor to initiate or to continue proceedings to garnish wages in a manner consistent with chapter 652 due to past-due moneys owed on debt; provided that the past or present moneys owed for child support shall be exempt from this section.

(b) After the covered period and the sixty days following the termination of the covered period, for six months thereafter, it shall be unlawful for a creditor to garnish an amount exceeding ten per cent of the debtor's wages; provided that the creditor and debtor may come to a mutual agreement as to a payment plan on any debt owed."
(c) Remedies provided under this section are cumulative and do not preclude any remedies available to debtors under any other law.

(d) A creditor who willfully violates this section shall be liable to the debtor in a civil action for the following:

(1) Actual damages to the debtor; and

(2) Reasonable attorney's fees arising from the civil action.

(e) For the purposes of this section:

"Child support" means payment for the necessary support and maintenance of a child as required by law that includes but is not limited to spousal support when being enforced in conjunction with child support or medical support when a court or administrative order requires the debtor parent to pay an amount in lieu of providing medical insurance coverage or to reimburse for maternity and delivery expenses incurred when the debtor parent's child was born.

"Covered period" means the period during which a state of emergency declared by governor's emergency proclamation is in effect.

"Creditor" means the following:
(1) Any person or entity that offers or extends credit creating a debt;

(2) Any person or entity that is owed payment arising out of any obligation or agreement;

(3) Any lessor of real or personal property;

(4) Any provider of utility services; and

(5) Any debt collector.

"Debt" means any obligation or alleged obligation of a person to pay money arising out of any transaction, whether or not the obligation has been reduced to judgment; provided that debt does not include any moneys owed out of a past or present child support obligation.

"Debtor" means any individual obligated or allegedly obligated to pay any debt who can establish they have been negatively financially impacted by the coronavirus disease 2019 pandemic.

"Debt collector" means a creditor, any person or entity that engages in the collection of debt, including the state government or any agency of this State, irrespective of whether the debt is allegedly owed to that person or entity.
"Emergency proclamation" means an emergency proclamation issued by the governor pursuant to this chapter in relation to the coronavirus disease 2019 pandemic."

SECTION 2. This Act does not affect rights and duties that matured, penalties that were incurred, and proceedings that were begun before its effective date.

SECTION 3. New statutory material is underscored.

SECTION 4. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 2050 and shall repeal six months after the expiration of the governor's emergency proclamation as defined in section 1 of this Act, or on December 31, 2021, whichever occurs first.
